

Field Seminar for Teachers | “In the Footsteps of Operation Reinhardt”

The Warsaw Ghetto Museum invites teachers and educators to a free field seminar “In the Footsteps of Operation Reinhardt” on March 26–27, 2022.

Jews in Lublin rounded up before their deportation (Yad Vashem)

On March 17, 1942, “Operation Reinhardt” began – a perfectly planned operation to systematically murder the entire Jewish population of the Generalgouvernement and later the Białystok district, to use the victims’ labor and loot their property. The operation was probably named after Reinhard Heydrich, the organizer of the Wannsee Conference and the main architect of the Holocaust. The SS and police commander in the Lublin district, SS –Brigadefuehrer Odilo

Globocnik, was appointed its leader. During Operation Reinhardt, Jews were murdered both in their places of residence and in extermination camps – such as Bełżec, Sobibór, Treblinka and the camps designated as concentration camps: Majdanek and Auschwitz-Birkenau. In total, about 1.85 million Jews, mostly citizens of the Republic of Poland, died during Operation Reinhardt, which lasted until the end of 1943.
