

We Raised Our Voices: Resistance by Germans to the Nazi Regime

We invite you to participate in the online event “We Raised Our Voices: Resistance by Germans to the Nazi Regime”, organized by the Ghetto Fighters’ House and the Friedrich Ebert Foundation on the occasion of the International Holocaust Remembrance Day. One of the guests of the meeting will be Dr. Batya Brutin, visual advisor to the director of the WGM.

registration under the link:

https://us02web.zoom.us/meeting/register/tZ0kfu2prTloH934XcWbYEBqw_kmzLIwgOiN

International Holocaust Remembrance Day 2022

Thursday | 27.1.22 | 20:00 | Virtual Event

We Raised our Voices

Resistance by Germans to the Nazi Regime
"A Small Light Can Repel the Darkness"

Artists, literary figures, intellectuals, labour movement activists, men and women, chose to remain in Germany and fight for what they believed in, against the regime, and suffered for their actions.

Greetings & Opening Remarks:
Yigal Cohen, CEO, The Ghetto Fighters' House
Ms. Judith Stelmach, Representative of the Friedrich Ebert Foundation

With:
Prof. Moshe Zimmerman, "How does One Small Star Dare?", German opposition and resistance to the Nazis
Dr. Batya Brutin "Draw Me Resistance", artistic expressions of opposition to the Nazi regime in Germany

Artistic Program:
Dance, by the Matte Asher Regional Dance Ensemble, Ga'aton, Music and Theater.

Simultaneous English translation will be available

INVITATION

FRIEDRICH EBERT STIFTUNG
BEIT LOHAMEI HAGHETAOT
GHETTO FIGHTERS' HOUSE MUSEUM

Memorial to the "White Rose"
Leaflets scattered on the pavement
In front of the Ludwig Maximilians University, Munich

Publication

date: 2022-01-25

Print date: 2022-01-27 05:00

Source: <http://1943.pl/en/artykul/we-raised-our-voices-resistance-by-germans-to-the-nazi-regime/>