Memory and future
80th Anniversary of the Warsaw Ghetto Uprising
Concert by the Polish-Israeli Youth Symphony Orchestra

Programme:
First performance of „Tenebrae” by Elżbieta Sikora and
Symphony No. 8, op. 83, „Polish Flowers” by Mieczysław Weinberg

Performers:

- Pavlo Tolstoy – tenor
- Polish National Youth Choir
- Polish-Israeli Youth Symphony Orchestra (Chopin University of Music and The Conservatory of the Jerusalem Academy of Music and Dance)
- Anna Sulkowska-Migoń – conductor
- Nachman Turgeman – cantor

Apart from the symbolic message and the tribute to the Jewish and Polish victims of Nazi terror, the concert underlines the importance of Polish-Jewish relations based on mutual respect for the common centuries-old tradition and historical truth.

It is also a meeting of young musicians from Poland and Israel, the overall idea of which is to overcome the barriers and stereotypes, to create new relations between the young generation of Poles and Jews, which is why musicians from both countries – remembering the past – will play for the future.

On the concert program: the premiere of the song “Tenebrae” by Elżbieta Sikora and the VIII Symphony op.83 “Polish Flowers” by Mieczysław Weinberg.
