team

We are pleased to inform you that Ms Joanna Dudelewicz has joined the Warsaw Ghetto Museum team as Deputy Director for Investment, Economic and Organisational Affairs

20 August 2020

Ms Joanna Dudelewicz is joining the Warsaw Ghetto Museum team at a pivotal moment for our institution. At the beginning of September, we are planning to publish an invitation to tender for design of a building and permanent exhibition of the Warsaw Ghetto Museum. Joanna Dudelewicz is an excellent professional – architect, conservator with many years of professional experience gained in architectural design studios as well as in the Office of the Voivodeship Conservator of Monuments, Ministry of Culture and National Heritage and the Museum of Warsaw as the Manager of the Investment Department and the Manager – Coordinator of investment projects co-financed from domestic and EU funds. The Manager – Coordinator of the “OdNowa Muzeum Warszawy” [ReNEWed Museum of Warsaw] Project, consisting in the reconstruction, modernisation and conservation of 11 historic tenement houses of the Museum headquarters together with the installation of a permanent exhibition and arrangement of internal spaces. The project has been honoured with numerous national prizes, including Zabytek Zadbane [Well-maintained Monument] and Lider Dostępności [The Accessibility Leader Award]. She is the author of numerous publications and a lecturer in the field architecture, conservation, EU subsidies and public procurement.

Ms Joanna Dudelewicz replaced Ms Aleksandra Skibniewska.
